The A-OK Corral and Willow Creek Horseback Rides is located in Jackson Wyoming. Being a wrangler at the A-OK Corral and Willow Creek Horseback Rides consists of long days in the saddle all summer long. We usually start the day at 7 am catching and saddling horses and end the day around 6 pm. We work 6 days a week Monday – Saturday. You can expect to spend anywhere from 4 -8 hours each day in the saddle. You need to be responsible, comfortable around horses, know how to saddle, bridle, and care for the stock; feeding and watering. A big part of the job is being a team player. Being a people person is a must! Working well with your fellow wranglers and sharing equally in the work load. You need to like being around people, entertaining and talking with guests is a huge part of the job. If this sounds like something you would like to do let us know. We look forward to hearing from you!
